Nicholas Zazzera Named President of DECO Productions, Inc., a DMC Network Company
Events Industry Leader with Over 30 Years of Experience is Promoted to President

Miami, FL – February 25, 2020 – Nicholas Zazzera, former Senior Account Executive at DECO Productions, Inc., has been appointed as President, effective immediately. In his new role, Nicholas will spearhead the company’s strategic growth plans while ensuring client satisfaction working with and through the highly talented DECO Team and industry partners.

Beginning his career in the hospitality industry, Nicholas held management positions at Atlas Hotels in Scottsdale, Arizona, Swissotel Chicago, IL, Hyatt Union Station, Saint Louis, MO and Hyatt Coral Gables, FL. Throughout the years he was recognized and awarded for his creativity, exquisite designs and most importantly, his ability to build and lead winning teams.

Since joining DECO in 1998, Nicholas continues to play an integral part of the company. He’s successfully designed and executed thousands of corporate and social events while maintaining his signature “5 Star” service. Aside from the work he has done with Fortune 500 companies and high-profile social clients, Nicholas takes pride in the work he continues to do with local non-profit organizations, such as Baptist Health South Florida, Camillus House and Make-A-Wish. “I can’t think of any industry professional I would entrust with the future of the DECO Productions Family and our Clients”, said Sharon Siegel, the company’s founder. With Nicholas as President, DECO is poised to reach new heights. His innovative ideas paired with his many years of experience and attention to detail are just a few of the qualities that make him the perfect candidate to lead DECO Productions, Inc. into the future.
